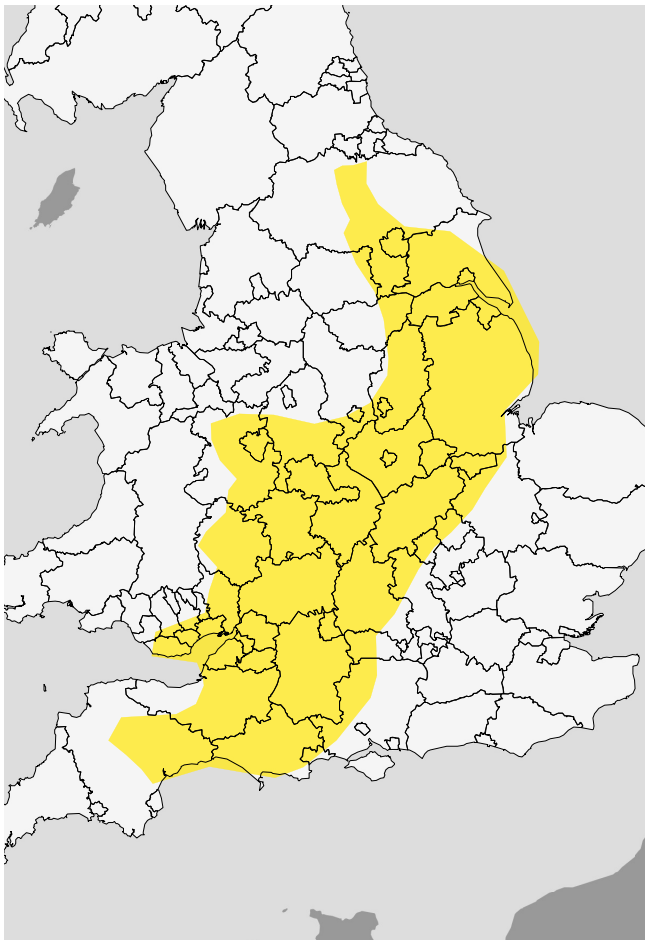
Yellow warning
Fog

Between
20:00 Wed 15 Jan 2025 and
11:00 Thu 16 Jan 2025



Fog will result in difficult driving conditions.

What to expect

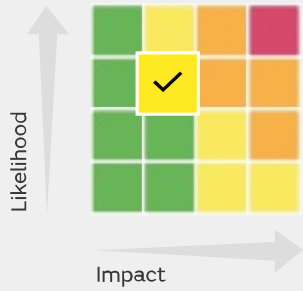
- Slower journey times with delays to bus and train services possible
- There is a chance of delays or cancellations to flights

Further details

Areas of fog will continue to develop through Wednesday evening and overnight and, in places, will be dense with visibility below 100 metres.

Some of the fog will tend to thin and lift into low cloud across parts of southern England and the southeast Midlands by dawn, but is likely to persist in a corridor from southwest England through the rest of the Midlands to Lincolnshire and Yorkshire until late morning.

What should I do?



✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts

Yellow warning
Fog

Between
20:00 Wed 15 Jan 2025 and
11:00 Thu 16 Jan 2025

Further Details (continued)

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, leaving extra journey time, or amending plans if necessary. Make sure you know how to switch on your fog lights, and check they are working before setting off on your journey. Bus and train services, as well as flights and ferry travel may also be affected; check for updates from your travel company and follow their advice.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.
